

Sangeet

North Indian Classical and Raga Jazz Music Camp

Sunday, July 31st to Friday, August 5th, 2011

- North Indian Classical music for sitar, sarod and Western instruments
- North Indian Classical music & Nada Yoga for vocalists
- Tabla and North Indian rhythm (for tabla players, vocalists and instrumentalists)
- Raga Jazz Ensemble (creative, contemporary music)

All levels welcome!

Paul Livingstone

sitar, sarod, western instruments, raga jazz

International performing artist Paul Livingstone is one of the leading sitarists in America today. He has been rigorously trained for the past 25 years in India and the US under the late Amiya Dasgupta, Rajeev Taranath and the living legend Pandit Ravi Shankar. Paul has performed and taught Indian classical and ragajazz music around the US, Mexico, Europe & South Asia. www.tanpura.com

Shanti Shivani

vocals and nada yoga / the yoga of sound

Shanti Shivani is one of the few Western pioneers bringing the sacred traditions of Nada Yoga and Dhrupad, the most ancient style of Hindustani classical music, to the West. Since 1981 Shanti has been a disciple of the esteemed Dagar family, masters of Dhrupad. She has been leading workshops internationally since 1986, performing and recording Dhrupad and World Fusion Music since 1993. www.shantishivani.com

Hom Nath Upadhyaya

tabla and percussion instruments

Pandit Hom Nath Upadhyaya, Nepal's foremost exponent of tabla is an accomplished performer, educator, and scholar who has brought the music of North India and Nepal to audiences throughout the world. His gurus include Pandit Ramji Mishra of Benares, Pandit Shambhu Mishra of Kathmandu, Nepal, and the legendary Ahmedjaan Thirakwa. He teaches in Nepal and Santa Barbara, CA. www.homnathtabla.com

For more info visit: www.tanpura.com/Oregon, www.shantishivani.com/Events

Location: Tipi Village in Marcola, Oregon

www.tipivillageretreat.com

Cost: $450 tuition plus food/lodging

Early Bird Special: $400 before June 1st

Registration: Shanti at shanti@shantishivani.com

Sharanam at sharanam1008@gmail.com